26 Organisations Crowned Winners of 2022 TTG China Travel Awards Recognising Excellence in the Travel Sector

Singapore, 08 October 2022 – The 2022 TTG China Travel Awards honors 26 outstanding organisations as winners for their perseverance, impressive achievements and contributions to Greater China’s Travel Trade as the pandemic continues to impact Chinese tourism.

With the global COVID-19 pandemic still ongoing, organisers of the awards made the necessary decision of withholding a ceremony and gala dinner due to continued health and safety concerns of invited guests and winners.

This year, the TTG China Travel awards revamped its award categories and award titles in line with the ever-changing competitive landscape. Some of the major changes include streamlining the Individual Hotel Awards and Hotel Awards in Other Regions within China categories where award titles such as “Best Hotel in East and Northeast China”, “Best Hotel in North and Northwest China” and “Best Hotel in Central South and Southwest China” were combined to form the new award titles “Best Hotel in East, North and Northeast China” and “Best Hotel in Northwest, Central South and Southwest China”. The awards also suspended its Airlines Awards category with international air travel still on pause in China.

About one-third of the awardees are defending winners for yet another year. They include veteran organisations such as Hyatt Hotels and Resorts, Wanda Hotels & Resorts and LN Garden Hotel, Guangzhou who held on to their respective titles for 7 years in a row.

Universal Studios Beijing, Club Med Guilin, Wyndham Grand Plaza Royale Hangzhou and Fraser Suites Shenzhen are first time entrants to the awards this year, winning themselves the titles of “Best Theme Attraction in China”, “Best Family Resort in China”, “Best Hotel in East, North and Northeast China” and “Best Serviced Apartment in China” respectively.

All winners were selected through an industry-wide voting process spanning from May to August this year. Voters comprised of readers of TTG China, TTG-BTmice China, TTG Asia, TTG India, TTGmice, TTGassociations, and TTG Asia Luxury, as well as the travel trade at large, who are travel consultants, tour operators and destination management companies.

The TTG China Travel Awards is a TTG Travel Trade Publishing event organised by TTG China, usually held annually in Shanghai, in conjunction with The Leading International MICE Event in China, IT&CM China and The Leading Corporate Travel Management Conference for China, CTW China.

Voting for the TTG China Travel Awards 2023 will open next year. More information on the TTG China Travel Awards can be found at: awards.ttgchina.com
