2023 TTG China Travel Awards: Celebrating 29 Organisations Paving Way for Travel Excellence in China's Tourism Industry

Singapore, 18 August 2023 – The 2023 TTG China Travel Awards honours 29 outstanding organisations as winners for their perseverance in facing the challenging market environment and impressive achievements and contributions to Greater China's Travel Trade.

This year, the TTG China Travel Awards revamped its award categories and awarding titles in line with the ever-changing competitive landscape. Some of the major changes include the addition of a new award title – “Best Resort (International)”; streamlining the Individual Hotel Awards and Hotel Awards in Other Regions within China categories where award titles such as “Best Luxury Hotel in Hong Kong/Macao” were expanded to form the new award titles “Best Luxury Hotel in Hong Kong” and “Best Luxury Hotel in Macao”. Additionally, this year Airline Awards continue to remain on hold. Organisers plan to resume the four-year halted Airline Awards next year as China's International air travel is in the process of recovering.

About one-third of the awardees are defending winners for yet another year. They include veteran organisations such as Hyatt Hotels and Resorts, Wanda Hotels & Resorts, The Westin Bund Center, Shanghai and LN Garden Hotel, Guangzhou who held on to their respective titles for 8 years in a row.

Hyatt Place Beijing Shiyuan, Grand Hyatt Jeju, Regala Skycity Hotel Hong Kong and M Social Hotel Suzhou are first-time entrants to the awards this year, winning themselves the titles of “Best Mid-Range Hotel in Beijing/Shanghai”, “Best Resort (International)”, “Best New Hotel” and “Best Hotel in East, North and Northeast China” respectively.

More than half of this year's winners marked their return to the awards either in the same or a different category. Notable mentions include JW Marriott Hong Kong, past winner of the “Best Business Hotel in Hong Kong” award in 2020, who took home the title of “Best Meetings & Conventions Hotel in Hong Kong” for the first time. Another winner is Harbour Plaza 8 Degrees, a past winner of the “Best Mid-Range Hotel in Hong Kong”, making their triumphant return to the same award.

All winners were selected through an industry-wide voting process spanning from May to June this year. Voters comprised of readers of TTG China, TTG-BTmice China, TTG Asia, TTG India, TTGmice, TTGassociations, and TTG Asia Luxury, as well as the travel trade at large, who are travel consultants, tour operators and destination management companies.

The TTG China Travel Awards is a TTG Travel Trade Publishing event organised by TTG China, usually held annually in Shanghai, in conjunction with The Leading International MICE Event in China, IT&CM China and The Leading Corporate Travel Management Conference for China, CTW China.

Voting for the TTG China Travel Awards 2024 will open next year. More information on the TTG China Travel Awards can be found at: awards.ttgchina.com
